

Zion: The Road Leads On

I want to express my appreciation for the people of Zion assisting me along in my spiritual journey. I was stimulated in my spiritual journey in new ways.

- My three-month preparation gave me a new understanding in "The Spirit of Truth," and the many Biblical passages I had to do research
- I met many of my old friends and met some new ones.
- The biggest surprise and the one that is still driving me forward was the book I found in Jim Greenings home. I have a whole new look on coincidences and the role of God and in the book, "Bible for Vital Congregations." As I said before, this book needs to be used in Zion as a Bible study.
- The biggest surprise of all was when the author of "Bible for Vital Congregation", Barbara J. Essex, called me on the evening of July 1st at home. We discussed racism, The United Church of Christ and her home church on the south side of Chicago, which was the same church President Obama attended, and I once attended in 1965. Maybe all three of us were in attendance at the same time.
- Thanks again Zion, it was quite a ride.
- Shalom, Peace and Wholeness
